

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

I strongly believe
the public airways
must be protected to facilitate and
promote a well
informed voting
citizenship of our country. This concept will be violated if Sinclair is allowed to air the anti-Kerry
documentary "Stolen Honor" at such a pivotal time in this election process.
While this may be good for Sinclair's
bottom line it
continues to erode
local ownership and
production of news
programming.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
